Sleeping Bear Dunes National

Lakeshore Visitor Guide is produced and designed annually by Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore, Division of Interpretation & Visitor Services.

Special thanks to photographers Kerry Kelly, Dennis Yockers, Alice Van Zoeren, Nicole Macdonald, and Mark Lindsay.

The Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore Visitor Guide is published by Eastern National, a private, non-profit organization which operates the sales outlets at the General Store, Dune Center, and visitor center. A portion of their proceeds is donated to the Lakeshore to support interpretive and educational programs.

The National Park Service cares for special places saved by the American people so that all may experience our heritage.

Welcome to Sleeping Bear Dunes

Welcome to Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore—the Most Beautiful Place in America!

Last year was full of such superlatives for the Lakeshore. In April, the Sleeping Bear Point Trail was chosen the best Hike-to-View in all our national parks in the National Geographic book, The 10 Best of Everything National Parks. The book also named the Lakeshore's Manitou Passage #7 for best scuba and snorkeling sites. Then in July, Lakeshore beaches were deemed the best on the Great Lakes in the first-ever rankings for the region by the renowned Dr. Beach. For the coup-de-grace, August saw the viewers of ABC's Good Morning America vote Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore the most beautiful place in America in a highly publicized national contest. We are humbled by the honors and hope we can count you among our fans.

We expect 2012 to be a banner year after receiving so many accolades. This Visitor Guide provides a wealth of information to help you make the most of your time. We have highlighted recreational opportunities throughout the 71,000+ acres of protected park lands as well as some of the activities our employees and volunteers are undertaking to preserve this special place for future generations. First-time visitors may find there are so many experiences to choose from, they will just have to return; repeat visitors will likely be inspired to experience something new and different.

The most exciting new opportunity in the Lakeshore will be biking or hiking the very first leg of the new Sleeping Bear Heritage Trail. Look for the four-mile section connecting the Dune Climb and Glen Arbor to be completed by July 4th. Be sure to take time to stop off the Heritage Trail in Glen Haven and see new outdoor exhibits that tell the stories of the once-bustling coastal village. Should you be lucky enough to venture out to South Manitou Island, you can ride along on a new tour of the island interior and walk the new boardwalk trail to a stand of champion giant cedars you may never have seen.

Unfortunately, you may have to put up with some inconvenience this year while we make improvements. Expect disruptions throughout the park as we repave our roads and parking areas to better serve you, our visitor. Please bear with us and accept our apologies in advance.

This spectacular place belongs to you and is yours to explore. Relax, renew, rejoice, and recreate on maintained trails, perched dunes, pristine beaches, hidden lakes, quiet rivers, beautiful forests, secluded islands, and historic farmsteads. All of this and more is waiting here for you.

I wish you a safe, rewarding, and memorable experience, and hope that this is not your only visit to Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore. Come back soon!

Listening Assistance Available

Do you have trouble hearing information at ranger programs because of competing sounds?

Try out the FM wireless listening system available for your use in the Lakeshore. The equipment amplifies the sound of a ranger's voice, which you hear through a headset, neck loop, or earbuds. Use the wireless system for a ranger-led hike or evening program, or at the visitor center in Empire, the campground offices, or the General Store in Glen Haven. A listening system is also available for the multimedia program at the visitor center.

Visitors wishing to use the equipment are encouraged to call ahead and arrive early.

Chipmunks, Raccoons, and Bears, Oh My!

National Parks are wonderful places to see a great variety of wildlife. But we need your help to keep the wildlife truly wild and healthy by making sure you store your food properly. Although seldom seen here, bears are especially curious and can smell food and beverages in sealed containers. Please store all foods properly.

To animals, food includes all food, trash, beverages, and anything with a scent, including: toiletries, lotions, toothpaste, soaps, insect repellent, pet food, medicine, perfume, gum, candy, empty food or beverage containers, tobacco products, dirty dishes, scented tissues, etc.

Store your food carefully when camping

- Store all food, drinks, trash, and scented items in animal-proof food storage boxes or your vehicle trunk, with vehicle doors closed at all times.
- Never store food, drinks, trash, or scented items in your tent!
- Do not dispose of food or trash in fire rings.
- Do not leave food unattended, even for a few minutes.

Never leave your food unattended when hiking or picnicking

Improvements in your National Lakeshore

Visitors to Sleeping Bear Dunes may encounter construction this year. The Platte River Campground office is getting an addition, many roads and parking areas are being repaved, and the first segment of the Sleeping Bear Heritage Trail is being built. We are sorry for any inconvenience, but the optimum conditions for outside fun are also the necessary conditions for outdoor work! Check our web page, facebook page, and twitter feed for the latest information.

Firewood

There's nothing like sitting around a warm, crackling campfire, roasting marshmallows to perfection, laughing with friends, and watching flames dance across the logs.

Unfortunately, firewood is known to harbor harmful insect and disease pests which can destroy forests. In order to protect our beautiful forests from succumbing to these non-native pests, the National Lakeshore has established a new campground firewood policy.

Campers may only use firewood purchased from vendors approved by the National Lakeshore. These vendors are selling firewood that has either been safely treated for pests or is from a type of tree that is known to be pest free.

Unapproved firewood can rapidly spread destructive pests such as hemlock woolly adelgid, beech bark disease, Asian longhorn beetle, and oak wilt; as has already occurred with the emerald ash borer.

You may purchase approved firewood from firewood vending machines located in both campgrounds or from local firewood vendors in the surrounding communities.

Unapproved firewood may not be used in the campgrounds. Help us protect the forest by leaving your firewood at home!

Visit www.nps.gov/slbe for more information.

Approved firewood is available from the following vendors:

Vending machines in the campgrounds
Merrills Water Power Mill, Benzonia
Phil Gunther, Beulah
Empire EZ Mart/BP Gas Station, Empire
Ooley Enterprise, Empire
Anderson's IGA, Glen Arbor
Dan's Wood, Deadstream Rd., Honor
Honor Family Market, Honor
Honor Trading Post, Honor
Riverside Canoes, Honor
The Corner Store, Honor
Cherryland Grocery, Interlochen
B&M Party Store, Lake Ann

Manufactured logs for campfires are also acceptable.

Camping

Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore offers camping for everyone. The Platte River Campground is equipped with modern facilities, tent pads, picnic tables, fire rings, and paved parking pads at each site.

Make a Difference

In 2011, almost 1,300 Volunteers-In-Parks (VIPs) donated more than 35,000 hours at Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore. VIPs staffed visitor centers and museums, acted as campground hosts, monitored piping plovers, maintained and renovated trails and historic buildings, removed invasive plants, and much more. You too can help care for your national parks. For more information, contact the volunteer coordinator at 231-334-0215.

Maritime Museum

Tour the crew quarters and boathouse at the Maritime Museum at Sleeping Bear Point. Exhibits highlight the U.S. Life Saving Service and Great Lakes shipping history. Short interpretive talks are given throughout the day.

A sand-accessible wheelchair and public restrooms are available.

Open 11-5 daily, Memorial Day weekend through September. Open 12-5 weekends, October 1-17

Heroes of the Storm, 3:00 p.m. daily

In the late 1800s, the U. S. Life Saving Service (U.S.L.S.S.) crews started risking their lives in severe weather to rescue passengers from shipwrecks. Participate in a demonstration rescue using U.S.L.S.S. rescue techniques. A park ranger will roll out the beach cart, demonstrate the breeches buoy, and, on Thursdays, fire the Lyle Gun.

Daily, June 14 - Labor Day

Historic Beach Patrols

During the fall shipwreck season, patrol the beach with a surfman from the U.S. Life Saving Service. The worse the weather, the more realistic the patrol. Dress appropriately.

The Manitou Islands

South Manitou Island

No place offers a more complete sense of the National Lakeshore than South Manitou Island. Catch a passenger ferry for a day trip or camping excursion. The island preserves beaches, giant cedars, shipwrecks, and historic farms far from the rush of the mainland. Join a motor tour of the island. Climb the lighthouse stairs for grand views across Lake Michigan. Take everything you need (food and camping equipment) as no services are available on the island. Supplies are available in Leland.

North Manitou Island

For a true wilderness experience, back-pack on North Manitou Island. Visitors pass through the historic Coast Guard village before entering nearly 15,000 acres of undeveloped forests, fields, and beaches. Visits emphasize solitude and self-reliance. Plan well. No services are available. As you must stay overnight, take all your camping needs. Because of nesting piping plover, some beach areas may be closed May-August. There is no ferry service to North Manitou Island on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Don't get ticked!

As you are enjoying the Lakeshore—camping, hiking, playing in the woods—take note that ticks may be in the same environment. Fortunately there are several tactics you can use to prevent tick bites and protect yourself and your family.

Protect yourself from tick bites

- Avoid ticks by walking in the center of trails and avoiding contact with vegetation.
- Use a repellent such as DEET (on skin or clothing) and wear close-toed shoes, long sleeves, long pants, and socks. Wear light-colored clothing with a tight weave to easily spot ticks.
- Check your clothes and any exposed skin frequently for ticks. Avoid sitting directly on the ground, fallen logs, or stone walls.

After being outdoors

Check your body for ticks after being outdoors, and remove any tick you find.

Check these parts of your body and your child's body for ticks:

Under the arms	In and around the hair
In and around the ears	Between the legs
Inside belly button	Around the waist
Back of the knees

Check your clothing for ticks. Placing clothes into a dryer on high heat for at least an hour effectively kills ticks.

Shower soon after being outdoors. Showering within two hours of coming indoors has been shown to reduce your risk of being bitten by a tick.

If you are bitten by a tick

Remove an attached tick as soon as you notice it. Use fine-tipped tweezers or a tick removal tool, grasp the tick as close to the skin as possible, and then slowly, but firmly, pull it straight out. Immediately wash the bite area and your hands with soap and water, then apply an antiseptic to the bite wound.

Watch for signs of illness.

Early Lyme Disease Symptoms (3-30 days after exposure)

- Chills and fever
- Headaches
- Muscle and joint pain
- A characteristic bulls-eye shaped skin rash is present in 70-80% of cases

If you think you might have been exposed to Lyme disease consult with your physician. Lyme disease is treatable when diagnosis is made in the early stages.

Protect Your Park from Bullies

These invasive bullies don't steal lunch money, they steal survival.

Hundreds of non-native species have moved to the Great Lakes region since the first European settlers, and new ones arrive every day. Luckily only about 10-15% become invasive bullies, but that's enough to wipe out entire food chains and entire ecosystems if they are not stopped.

Invasive species such as zebra and quagga mussels, emerald ash borers, baby's breath (see photo), and black locust trees have all had a negative impact on the park's ecosystem.

We Need Your Help

With no predators to limit their growth or reproduction, invasives attack and out-compete native plants and animals for food, water, and sunlight. But with your help to slow their spread, scientists may have time to find limits for them before the damage is irreversible.

- To slow the spread of invasive bullies like the emerald ash borer, DO NOT move firewood. (Please see page 6.)
- To stop hitchhiking bullies, check for seeds and brush off your clothing, gear and shoes before and after hikes.
- To stop the spread of aquatic hitchhiking bullies (like mussels, water fleas, and vegetation), clean your boat and let it dry between uses.
- To slow dune erosion (and subsequent bully invasions), climb the dunes only in designated areas.
- To avoid introducing new bullies at home, plant only native plants.

We're Working to be one of the CLIMATE Friendly PARKS

As a steward of our nation's cultural and natural treasures, the National Park Service is taking a leading role in sustainability and climate change mitigation to ensure these special places are around for the enjoyment of future generations.

Climate change affects all of us and all of us affect climate. Sleeping Bear Dunes National Lakeshore is determined to make our effect a positive one that will preserve this nationally beloved place for generations to come. Becoming a Climate Friendly Park brings us one step closer.

We've completed our greenhouse gas emissions inventory and are now developing an emissions reduction plan. When we finalize and implement this plan, we'll officially become a Climate Friendly Park.

The Park has already made several changes that reduce our emissions and save money and resources by:

- installing programmable thermostats, improving insulation, and replacing lights with more energy efficient bulbs,
- installing photovoltaic systems on North and South Manitou Islands,
- building the Sleeping Bear Heritage Trail as a non-motorized transportation alternative (see page 18),
- replacing oil, cleaners, and solvents with soy based products, and
- replacing vehicles in our fleet with hybrids or alternative fuel models whenever possible.

We can't do it alone. Please learn more about how you can help by visiting the website below.

<http://www.nps.gov/climatechange/athome.cfm>

Luckily for us, most actions that are good for our global climate are even better for us, from saving money to improving our health.

All solid waste generated by visitors and staff at the Lakeshore is sorted and separated at the American Waste collection facility to recover recyclable materials. We do ask that you donate your Michigan redeemable beverage containers in the receptacles provided in our primary visitor use areas.

Dune Center Store

Operated by Eastern National, a non-profit park partner, the Dune Center (near restrooms at the Dune Climb) provides quality educational products and services for park visitors. Step into the air-conditioned store for nature guides, compasses, pins, T-shirts, hats, hiking sticks, and more. Call 231-334-2010 or visit (www.easternnational.org).

Open June: Fri, Sat, Sun 12-5; July 1-Labor Day: daily 12- 5.

Located at the base of the Dune Climb.

Beaches, Beaches

Let your bare feet guide you along the mainland's many sandy beaches. There are no concessions, so pack a picnic and your sunscreen. For your safety, glass containers are prohibited on beaches, waterways, and dune areas. Fires are permitted on mainland Lake Michigan beaches between the water's edge and the first dune, away from any vegetation. Firewood is available for purchase from the vendors listed on page 6.

Extinguish ALL beach fires with water.

DO NOT bury fires—hidden embers could burn unsuspecting bare feet!

A park entrance pass is required for any use of the National Lakeshore and is available at numerous locations throughout the park. The following beaches have vault toilets unless noted.

Platte Point Beach features the Platte River outlet where warmer water enters Lake Michigan. Accessible flush toilets are provided. Please note that a section of the shoreline is sometimes closed to protect nesting piping plovers. Regardless of the lot in which you park, a park entrance pass is required to use the National Lakeshore. A separate township fee is required to use the adjacent township park and picnic area.

Piping Plover Update

In 2011, there were 54 breeding pairs in the entire Great Lakes piping plover population; 18 of those were within the Lakeshore. The plover population remains highly sensitive to the loss of nesting adults on these breeding grounds. Both chicks and adults are at risk from dog and human encroachment into closed breeding areas. Please help us by keeping your dogs on a leash and obeying all beach closure signs.

Winter Activities

Explore the colors of winter. Blue-gray ice sheets sculpt the shoreline and leafless oak, beech, and maple trees reveal overlooks shrouded the rest of the year. Winter creates a quiet and rarely witnessed landscape.

Ski the trails. Easy, intermediate, and advanced trails exist. Not groomed, but frequently tracked. Ask about a ski trail guide or see pages 9 and 11.

Snowshoe anywhere. When following marked trails, please avoid trampling established ski tracks by snowshoeing alongside them, not on them.

Weekend snowshoe hikes. In January and February, rangers lead free introductory snowshoe hikes. Meet at the visitor center at 1:00 p.m. The park provides snowshoes free of charge. They are limited; call ahead for reservations 231-326-5134, x328.

Ice fish the inland lakes. State of Michigan licenses and regulations apply. Anglers are reminded to dress warm, use the buddy system, always wear a life jacket, and use caution when traveling across any ice.

Biking

Bike on any established road that vehicles travel or the new Sleeping Bear Heritage Trail, but not on any other park trails. Join a ranger for a ride or explore the following areas:

Port Oneida Rural Historic District: easy. These quiet country roads, a mix of gravel and pavement, wind between farms, barns, and wetlands. Ask for an area brochure at the visitor center.

Platte Plains Roads: moderate. Close to the Platte River Campground. Use these back roads to experience nature away from the highway.

Pierce Stocking Scenic Drive: strenuous. For experienced bicyclists only. This 7.5 mile loop, with heavy summer traffic and steep hills, provides overlooks of Lake Michigan and the dunes.

You can rent bicycles in Glen Arbor or at the Scenic Drive parking lot.

Declare Independence from Foreign Oil . . . and Your Car!

Scheduled to be completed by the 4th of July, the first segment of the long-awaited Sleeping Bear Heritage Trail will allow visitors a fun, healthy, and safe alternative to driving from place to place in the Lakeshore. Suitable for all types of bikes, as well as other non-motorized transport such as strollers, rollerblades, and wheelchairs, this first stretch of trail will run just over four miles from the Dune Climb to Glen Arbor. It will be mostly flat with a few gentle undulations, and paved for accessibility, ease of use, and maintenance. Hikers and bicyclists will enjoy the beautiful route as it winds along the base of the dunes, follows a historic railway into the historic village of Glen Haven, accesses the back loop of D. H. Day Campground, and travels through the forest on old roads and trails into Glen Arbor.

Plans are to continue the trail south from the Dune Climb to Empire, and then northward from Glen Arbor to Port Oneida Rural Historic District and the beaches at County Roads 669 and 651. All told, the Sleeping Bear Heritage Trail will run 27 miles through the Lakeshore in Leelanau County. Bicyclists, especially those with children, will no longer have to risk busy road shoulders. In the winter, the Trail will be groomed for cross-country skiing. In addition to a fantastic new recreational opportunity, it will provide safe, healthy transportation options that reduce fuel consumption and vehicle congestion.

The Sleeping Bear Heritage Trail is a project of the Leelanau Scenic Heritage Route, a citizen-driven collaboration of local community support and participation from all levels of government. The Trail has received federal grant funding from both recreation and transportation sources, confirming it will serve both purposes. In addition, the "Pathways to Sleeping Bear" capital campaign has brought in over $1 million in private donations for building and maintaining the Trail. To help patrol and maintain the Trail, the Friends of Sleeping Bear Dunes have begun a volunteer Trail Ambassador program. To find out more about the Sleeping Bear Heritage Trail, including how you can get involved in supporting it, visit <http://sleepingbeartrail.org/>.

This 4th of July, you can celebrate independence by relying on your own power to get out and enjoy this special place! Come ride the trail!
